
Expertise

Industries

Energy and natural resources

Marif Law Firm uses extensive market knowledge to provide outstanding legal services on exploration, development, production, sale, transmission and distribution activities for energy and natural resources such as electricity, natural gas and oil as well as renewable energy, e.g., wind, solar, biomass, biogas, geothermal and hydropower.

Services specific to energy industry:

- Dispute resolution on various commercial and administrative conflicts amongst joint venture or consortium partners, other project stakeholders and regulators
- Legal due diligence
- Structuring and establishment of joint ventures, consortiums and special purpose vehicles
- Advice on regulatory issues including obtaining licences for production, sale, transmission and distribution activities for energy and natural sources
- Reviewing, drafting and negotiating contracts
- Privatisation
- Environmental and regulatory compliance

Key Contacts:

Oktay A. Uğurlu

Founding Attorney

